

National Education Academy - Code of Practice

Training and Assessment services

NEA management and staff are committed to providing Training and Assessment services, resources, support and equipment in a condition and environment that is conducive with achieving competency in the units of study undertaken.

Issuance of Qualifications

NEA will promptly provide copies of all qualifications and statements of attainment achieved by enrolled students and provide ongoing assistance to enquiring students with regard to their record of achievements and statements of attainment. A replacement fee is applicable to re issuance of records of achievement and statements of attainment. (Please refer to the Academy's website for Course Fee Information)

Financial Management

NEA applies sound and accountable financial practices within its day-to-day operations and maintains its adherence to equitable refund policies. (These are explained in the course information available on the Academy's website)

Records and Information Management

NEA is committed to implementing best practice in its records management practices and systems, responding in a timely manner to all requests of information from present and past students. All staff employed by NEA will be required to apply themselves to the provisions of the Privacy and Protection of Personal Information Act 1998.

Access and Equity

NEA Management and staff provide assistance to all clients to identify and achieve their desired outcomes. NEA is committed to providing training and assessment services to all clients regardless of race, religion, sex, socio-economic status, disability, language, literacy or numeracy and upholds the principles of equal opportunity.

RPL (Recognition of Prior Learning)

NEA management and staff are committed to supporting the RPL enquiries and requests from potential and enrolled students. Enrolling students are supplied with relevant RPL information at initial contact and orientation events prior to undertaking studies. Further support is provided with relevant RPL tools following RPL application.

Stakeholder feedback

NEA is committed to securing and reviewing advice and feedback from all its stakeholders involved in the delivery of its Training and Assessment services.

Provision of information

Clear and accurate advice is provided to all enrolling students at NEA. Initial contact, orientation and the commencement of studies is supported by the provision of timely information concerning enrolment procedures, vocational outcomes, fees, access and equity, guidance and support, complaints and appeals procedures and RPL arrangements or credit transfer.

Legislative Compliance

NEA Management and staff conducts periodic reviews to ensure that it is compliant with all state and federal legislative requirements for RTO's including but not limited to OH&S, Harassment, Discrimination, Equal Opportunity and Vocational Education and training legislation.

Marketing Accuracy

NEA Management and staff are committed to marketing its training and assessment services in an accurate, ethical and responsible manner ensuring that all clients are provided with timely and necessary information.

Complaints and Appeals

The complaints and appeals policy of NEA shall ensure that all complaints are dealt with in a constructive and timely manner. All complaints and appeals shall be reported in the weekly management meeting and client feedback forms shall be raised detailing the actions required to arrive at satisfactory resolve of each complaint and grievance. (Please refer to the Academy's website for Complaints and Appeals Procedures).
